

BROTHER RICE HIGH SCHOOL

Tom Reidy
President

Brother Rice High School in Bloomfield Hills, MI seeks an innovative High School Principal to lead the school's academic, extracurricular, and spiritual programs. The qualified candidate is a practicing Catholic with a master's degree and a minimum of five years' experience in school administration. Reporting to the President, the candidate will be a strategic leader committed to the Essential Elements of an Edmund Rice Christian Brother Education.

Founded in 1960 by the Congregation of Christian Brothers of Ireland, Brother Rice is a private, fully accredited, four-year Catholic college preparatory school for young men. Brother Rice High School fosters the educational, spiritual, intellectual, cultural and moral development of its students. The Brother Rice community promotes excellence through an environment conducive to life-long personal growth, and responsible, moral decision making in a Christian atmosphere.

The Brother Rice student body is composed of over 600 young men with a variety of ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds, talents and interests. Each student is a unique contributor to the Brother Rice family.
